

NAVIGATE YOUR WAY THROUGH A SEA OF ONLINE RESOURCES

The Internet is a vast smorgasbord of information for human resource professionals. However, many become overwhelmed with so many Web sites proclaiming to be "the best." Here's the book that cuts through the hype and provides assistance in locating some of the best online resources.

The HR field runs at a hectic pace, and often clear, precise, and up-to-date answers are needed on a moment's notice. Professionals must be able to quickly find the most accurate data available online, without getting lost in the abyss of materials available. They need to know where to find different recruiting services, legal information, tips on salary administration, and more. Designed to help readers get results fast, this informative reference guide:

- ✓ Shows where to start an online search
 - ✓ Directs users to the best sites
 - ✓ Organizes popular sites into ten different HR-related categories
- ✓ Identifies special features that make each site informative and unique
- ✓ Includes an additional list of more than 700 recruiting Web sites

The Internet offers a world of information at your fingertips. With The Best 100 Web Sites for HR Professionals, you'll discover how and where to find the top human resources materials online. Best of all, you'll save a great deal of time and money as you enhance your overall effectiveness as an HR professional.

IMPACT PUBLICATIONS
www.impactpublications.com
Careers/Business
$13.95

ISBN 3-57023-130-3

Cover design by Barry Littmann