

Your Passport to the Journey of Your Life!

Would you love to have a job that allows you to travel to exciting places, work with interesting people, make a difference in the lives of others, and/or follow your dreams and passions? Find such a job with the help of this incredibly comprehensive and revealing book by two of America's leading career and travel experts! Just stroll through any airport, visit a busy railway station, or survey the lobby of a major hotel and you'll discover a fascinating world of travel – hundreds of people on their way to and from somewhere. Some are in the pursuit of pleasure, others are fulfilling family obligations, and still others operate these major travel and hospitality centers. But the majority of people are engaged in work-related activities that involve some degree of travel.

If you have a passion for travel, Jobs for Travel Lovers may well become your best friend, coach, and passport to the exciting world of travel-work. Dispelling 60 myths, exploring key motivations, and outlining effective job search strategies, the book identifies hundreds of jobs and careers that enable individuals to travel both at home and abroad, including:

- The travel and hospitality industry • International organizations
- Federal, state, and local governments • Contracting and consulting
- Nonprofit organizations • Educational institutions

Written for anyone interested in combining fascinating travel with the realities of earning a living, the book discusses jobs involving:

- Airlines and cruise lines • Travel agencies and voluntourism
- Hotels and resorts • International careers
- Teaching and volunteering abroad • Travel writing and photography
- Short- and long-term work experiences • Internships and study abroad
- Business and entrepreneurship

Jam-packed with invaluable tips on how to get the right job, Jobs for Travel Lovers lists hundreds of websites for uncovering the world of travel-work and contacting potential employers. The perfect guide for anyone wanting to work the world before "settling down" or after retiring, as well as for those who simply want to put more interesting travel and adventure into their careers and lives.
