

Dream Jobs to Love: 100 People Share Their Secrets

If you've ever wondered what it's like having a really great job, look no further. This ground breaking book profiles 100 individuals who share stories about loving their work. Representing a wide spectrum of professions, these people reveal insights into what makes them happy. Not surprising, it's much more than money. They emphasize a variety of recurring themes:

- making a difference
- gaining respect
- using and learning skills
- meeting interesting people
- taking on responsibilities
- having autonomy
- experiencing variety
- being on the cutting edge

The people in this book gained their jobs through a combination of hardwork, persistence, and being in the right place at the right time. They both earned and pursued the jobs they love.

Based on interviews with numerous professionals, the book examines a wide range of occupational fields with some of today's top employers:

- computers
- consulting
- environment
- natural science
- human resources
- marketing
- sales
- manufacturing
- finance and accounting
- government
- sports
- education
- nonprofits
- your own business

Each occupational section is followed by a listing of recommended resources on how to find a job in the particular field. This is the perfect book for anyone planning a career move or simply interested in learning more about what others do for a living.
