Most people face 3 types of employment barriers - (1) barriers caused by other people (discrimination); (2) barriers beyond one's control (chronic health issues, natural disasters, etc.); and (3) barriers caused by poor personal choices, questionable skills, sketchy experience, difficult personalities, and mediocre efforts that make employers suspicious, hesitant, reluctant, and then unwilling to interview and hire such people. Profiling 127 employment barriers, Overcoming Employment Barriers \(#4285\) provides sound advice on how to best overcome each of these barriers.
