Why Bother? Finding the Will to Go On

Offenders' reactions to the correctional experience typically include terror, isolation, alienation, hostility, acute depression, emotional instability, and the ultimate soul-killer, hopelessness. So how can they keep hope alive when they seem to face a hopeless situation? Why go on, why try, why care, why hope, why change? The message of this powerful motivational program, presented by noted ex-offender Ned Rollo, is very clear: Life is worth living when you have hopes and dreams to pursue. A "must have" DVD for all correctional institutions and others concerned with changing the lives of inmates, including long-timers and lifers who need a new purpose in life. Includes a discussion guide. 28 minutes. 2005. $119.95

In Their Own Words
