The Story of Fathers and Sons

One father loses his two-month-old son; another father watches his son grow up through prison bars; one son wants to be the father he never had; and another son sheds tears of joy to be an old man alongside his dad. This documentary reflects the cycle of fatherhood and the path to maturity. Among the many poignant stories told firsthand are those of actor Edward James Olmos and basketball star Shaquille O'Neal. What these boys and men reveal is almost staggering in its candor. 45 minutes. $149.00

The Story of Mothers and Daughters

This intimate, deeply moving, and painfully honest award-winning documentary film is about the profoundly important mother-daughter bond. Fifty American women and girls, during pivotal life-moments from cradle to grave, give revealing self-portraits of the mother-daughter relationship in all its rich diversity and complexity. Originally aired on ABC and PBS. 72 minutes. $149.00

Bad Dads

George Foreman (Host)

Revealing some universal truths about the indelible impact a father has on his children, Bad Dads focuses on an unusual parenting program at a federal penitentiary. The program – called "H.O.P.E. For Life" – assists prison inmates who candidly admit to being poor fathers. The men are confronted by troubled teenagers who have been neglected, abandoned, or abused by their own fathers. Dramatic role playing between these two groups brings to the surface the pain and anger each individual suffers, and helps the fathers to get to the root of their own poor parenting. As the counseling sessions proceed, viewers learn that the men themselves were childhood victims of absent or abusive fathers. The men must allow themselves to reveal the anger of their own childhoods before they can sincerely apologize to their children – in writing and in person – and begin to regain their children's trust. 45 minutes. $129.95

Changing Men: Unlearning the Behaviors of Domestic Violence

Andrew, Adam, and Alex are members of a community-based behavior change group in Australia called Heavy M.E.T.A.L.: Men's Education Toward Anger and Life. This program tracks the progress of these men – three husbands and fathers with dangerous antisocial behavioral issues – as they struggle to stop committing emotional and physical violence against those who love them the most. How did they become the way they are? And will their committed participation in group therapy sessions enable them to salvage their marriages? 47 minutes. 2008. $169.95

Manhood

Substance abuse expert Darryl Turpin tells the truth: Real men take seriously the need for commitment, responsibility, and accountability in the family and the community. Encourages viewers to take such steps as sincere self-examination, active participation as a father and husband, voting, and joining community organizations. 43 minutes. 2003. $299.00

Silent Voices: Children With Incarcerated Parents

Filed in a courtroom and at Riverbend Maximum Security Prison, Rosetta Oliver talks with a group of parents and children about the impact of incarceration. She discusses the various stages of the incarceration experience. Children share their thoughts and feelings about what it was like to witness the arrest of a parent. Both parents and children share their experience of prison visits, the feelings they cause, and life without the incarcerated person at home. Inmates discuss the difficulties of parenting from behind prison walls. Offers solutions for children and parents who struggle with incarceration and community re-entry. 40 minutes. $299.00

The Dad Difference: Raising Children Birth to Five

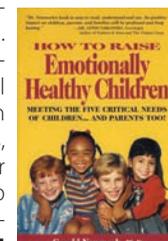

By teaching fathers ways to connect with their newborn and be an effective parent to their growing child, these two 30-35 minute award-winning programs give fathers the confidence and skills to parent in their own unique "dad way." Available in English or Spanish. 2004. $149.95 each. SPECIAL: $249.85 for both DVDs.

- Volume 1 - Baby Basics: Shows the vital role new fathers play during pregnancy, labor, and the early weeks of new child's life.
- Volume 2 - Involved From the Start: Teaches young dads healthy ways to connect with children from birth to age five and offers solutions to challenges.

How to Raise Emotionally Healthy Children

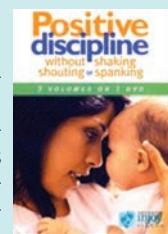

This exciting new series, based on the book How to Raise Emotionally Healthy Children, is a blueprint for better parenting. Every child has critical emotional needs to feel respected, important, accepted, included, and secure. Focusing on relational parenting, each of the three volumes in the series features an overview of emotional needs, common parent-child conflicts, and how parents can modify their reactions to meet their child's above-listed emotional needs. Parents learn skills to help reduce stress and maintain their own emotional health. Available in English or Spanish. 2013. 23-25 minutes each. $124.95 each. SPECIAL: $299.85 for all 3 volumes.

- Babies
- Toddlers
- Preschoolers

Positive Discipline: Without Shaking, Shouting, or Spanking

The frustrations of raising a child can lead parents to discipline by shouting, shaking, or spanking, behavior that all too often escalates into abuse. This award-winning, best-selling 3-DVD series uses real-life scenarios. It contrasts harmful, reactionary parenting with more effective, positive-parenting techniques that are proven to be healthier for kids. After showing the negative effects of physical punishment and emotional abuse, each program concludes by motivating parents to take a simple No Spanking Pledge. Available in English or Spanish. Includes facilitator's guide and handouts. 2004. 24-27 minutes each. $124.95 each. SPECIAL: $299.85 for the complete set.
